Meridian Gold Silver Project Exploration Update

Manson Creek Resources Ltd., (Manson Creek), wishes to announce that it was advised on July 25th that the Drilling Company contracted to begin diamond drilling at the Meridian project starting August 7th will not be available for the program.

Manson Creek has received all the permits required for the planned diamond drilling program. The access road and drill pads for the project have been completed. Additional sampling and prospecting was done during the road building program and results will be released once they are available.

The Company is actively seeking out a new drilling contractor in order to complete its drilling program as planned during the current exploration season.

The Qualified Person responsible for the design and implementation of the Field Program as well as the preparation of this news release was the President of the Company, Regan Chernish, P.Geol.
